

PACIFIC NORTHWEST SOCCER CLUB

Financial Aid Application Form

Pacific Northwest Soccer Club (PacNW) financial aid is funded from donations and direct fundraising by the club membership. PacNW has reserved a limited amount of funds that are available to those in need of financial assistance. All financial aid distributed by PacNW is on need based, any financial aid is at the sole discretion of PacNW. PacNW does not discriminate on the basis of team placement, race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age or disability.

Financial aid applications for High School boys who tryout in February must be complete and postmarked by March 15th. Financial aid applications for all others must be complete and postmarked by June 1st of each year. No late or incomplete financial aid applications will be accepted. Submission of the Financial Aid Request Form does not guarantee financial aid and/or that the requested amount will be awarded, payments are required and late payments will be assessed if payments are not made by the 15th of the month. If payments are more than 60 days past due, a portion of the financial aid award is subject to revocation. Volunteer hours must be worked and failure to perform volunteer hours may jeopardize up to 25% of the financial aid award in addition to the monetary charge for the volunteer hour buyout. If financial aid is awarded it reduces monthly club fees, financial aid does not cover 100% of club fees. All scheduled payments must be made until notified that financial aid has been awarded. Team fees, travel expenses, club volunteer hours will be at the expense of the player. Scholarship players are expected to participate fully on the team (Practice, Tournaments, team events, unless prior arrangements have been made with your coach. Parents/players are encouraged to participate in fundraising events opportunities (refereeing, event food booths). High School boys Financial Aid recipients (those who tryout in February) will be notified by April 21st. All other recipients will be notified by July 15th.
